'Midday Play Training' Course

For people involved in playtime supervision,
Midday Supervisors,
Teaching Staff
and Parents.

A 6 hour course over 3 weeks

Aim

To support people involved in playtime supervision,
Midday Supervisors, Teaching Staff and Parents.
To create happy peaceful playtimes in your school.

The course covers:

- ☺ Creating an outside environment that is fun for children and adults to be in.
- ☺ Creating playtimes where children play cooperatively.
- ☺ Creating positive experiences for children that will effect their whole school day.
- ☺ Empowering children and adults to resolve playtime problems.

The course consists of 3 two hour sessions
(usually over 3 weeks),

Participants will need to wear comfortable clothing and shoes as they will be taking part in practical activities.

There will be no test or assignments.

What you can expect from us:

- ☺ Input from an experienced team of Play Development Workers.
- ☺ We will value the work that you do and recognise the difficulties you face.
- ☺ Our aim is not to increase your work load but to make it manageable.
- ☺ We will make the training as fun and interesting as possible.

What we expect from you:

- ☺ To arrive on time.
- ☺ To come with an open mind and a willingness to participate.
- ☺ To build on your own experiences.
- ☺ To listen to others and respect their input.
- ☺ To have fun.
